Received your letter this morning dear Mother & was very glad to hear you are all well. I am sorry I did not write on Tuesday as I promised but I was very busy that day. I will write next Tuesday without fail. I am glad you have had such a nice time at Aunt Annie's & that you enjoyed yourself. I am very busy indeed at present but I am getting on very well. I am glad to hear that Father is working regularly. Thank you for the parcel which arrived safely. I am glad you like the things I sent you. I am sending you a few more things in this parcel. I hope you will like them. I am sending you a few more things in this parcel. I hope you will like them. I am sending you a few more things in this parcel. I hope you will like them.
